EDITORIAL

In opening our first issue of "BRANCH NEWS" for 1978, I would like to extend a warm welcome to the Rt. Rev. Cyril Bowles, Bishop of Derby, who has very kindly agreed to become our President.

Looking back, 1977 was a very successful year for the society. There has been a steady increase in enquiries also membership and we have enjoyed a varied and interesting programme of meetings.

Many thanks to member Mr. J. Beardsley, of Ilkeston who has lent to us, a copy and plan of the Monumental Inscriptions in Stanton Rd. Cemetery Ilkeston. These inscriptions have been recorded by a council workman, who has deposited them with the Ilkeston Library. A copy of these inscriptions and plan are now available in our Society Library. I ask all members to keep their eyes open for other interesting items, such as this, which may be found deposited in their own local Library.

We are also extremely pleased to be able to print in this issue, two stories from distant members. We hope these will encourage other members to write in.

I wish all our members and friends a very happy and successful year.

LETTERS RECEIVED FROM DISTANT MEMBERS

A MURDER STORY FROM MR. & MRS. P. CRESSWELL OF ECCLES MANCHESTER

Reading the murder story in your latest magazine prompted us to write and tell you of a murder in our own family history.

In 1471 at COLYNHAY near CHAPEL-EN-LE-FRITH, ROBERT and JOHN CLOUGH, of CODNOR, YEOMEN, RICHARD NERE of BOWDEN, his bondsman and THOMAS HEYWARD, their servant, lay in wait to kill ROGER CRESSWELL and there murdered him. HENRY REDFERN of BOWDEN, YEOMAN and WILLIAM REDFERN aided and abetted them at MALCOFF in BOWDEN. ROGER CRESSWELL'S quarrel with the CLOUGH'S may have arisen from a court case a short while earlier, when he sat as juror.

Property formally^{er} owned by the CLOUGH family appears before 1510 to have passed to the VERNON family and Mr. Greaves Bagshawe, the historian, suggests that the VERNON'S, who for generations had held the office of Steward of the Peak, may have had interest enough to obtain a grant of the forfeited property after the conviction of the CLOUGH'S. RICHARD VERNON of HAZELBADGE, bequeathed his property to an illegitimate son, whose descendants conveyed it or parts of it, in 1586 and 1596 to ANTHONY CRESSWELL of FORD HALL.

A GOOD LUCK STORY FROM MRS. C. DRAKE OF WARRENSBURG MONTANA U.S.A.

My search began when I found a letter to my grandmother, written by her cousin in 1930. Spurred on by the luck others had had against impossible odds, I wrote a letter to Crispin PHAROAH, - or his descendants at 30 Causey Morley Hill, NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, ENGLAND.

Two months later, I received a letter from a grand-daughter of Crispin PHAROAH. She told me that the little village the letter had been addressed to, had been pulled down many years ago to make way for road construction. The only building left standing is the Causey Inn, where my letter was delivered. Someone at the pub knew the descendants of Crispin PHAROAH and gave the letter to them. The old gentleman had been dead 19 years - he was 89 when he died.

I shall be forever grateful to Elaine PHAROAH for taking the time to reply to my letter and for helping me with information on the PHAROAH-ANDERSON line. It was even more interesting to learn that her mother's brother teaches at the University of Missouri, only 90 miles from here, and was planning to pay him a visit. This resulted in a really happy family reunion.

HAVE YOU ANY AMERICAN ANCESTORS?

If the answer to this question is yes, you may be interested to know that the Ohio Genealogical Society located in Mansfield has an Ancestor Card File system similar to the one in this country (National Pedigree Index) "A card for every ancestor about whom you have at least the name, one date and one place of residence is required. You may not need help but you may be able to help another member in adding information to his chart. Many valuable contacts are made this way."

DALBURY is a small village situated $\frac{1}{2}$ miles south west of Derby described in the 'Domesday Survey' as "a hamlet of MICKLOVER, belonging to the Abbot of Burton"

In the region of Edward III, Dalbury and Dalbury Lees were the property of Sir Robert Holland. Later they were in the hands of Sir Samuel Sleigh, who died in 1679. They passed, through his daughter and co-heiress to Samuel Cheetham Esq. of BELLAPORT, SHROPSHIRE, who married the other co-heiress.

The church, dedicated to 'ALL SAINTS' is a small ancient structure, situated at the end of a tree-lined lane which once led to the 'lost' village of ASH.

"THE ORIGIN OF HEANOR STREET NAMES"

published by members of the
HEANOR AND DISTRICT LOCAL HISTORY SOCIETY

This publication opens with a short account of the history of HEANOR since the 'Domesday Survey' and contains late 18th century and early 19th century photographs of the town and district.

The main part of the booklet deals with the origin of the street names of HEANOR, MARLPOL, LOSCOE, CODNOR, LANGLEY, and LANGLEY MILL, many of which were named after local families. There is also a map with references. (87p by post in U.K.)

This booklet is now available, price 75p. Anyone interested in obtaining one should contact Mrs. W. Waterall, whose address will be found on page one of this issue.

THE MORMON LIBRARY

The GENEALOGICAL BRANCH LIBRARY of THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER DAY SAINTS is now open in LOUGHBOROUGH. Here can be found computer print-outs on microfiche of all items filmed by the Mormons. They give, alphabetically and chronologically for each parish, the baptisms and marriages on which they have data. These parish print-outs reduce the tedious task of searching a parish register or bishop's transcript from hours to minutes. Quickly, one can tell whether or not a particular entry is in a certain parish, as all entries of a particular family for generations are listed on one or two pages.

It is advisable to make an appointment to use the microfiche viewer as there is only one available. The address is - Loughborough War Chapel, Thorpe Hill, Loughborough, Leicestershire. Tel. Loughborough 214991.

MONUMENTAL INSCRIPTIONS

As Spring draws near we are again thinking about resuming our task of recording the monumental inscriptions in our Derbyshire churchyards. There is a wealth of information in these inscriptions, as can be seen by reading through the Pentrich and Dalbury ones already printed in our magazines.

This year we intend to finish South Wingfield and Alfreton churchyards. We should have made a start at Heage and Ironville last year but owing to weather conditions these were left over until this year.

We appeal to local members to give a little of their time to this worthwhile project, even if it is only a couple of hours. A work plan will be discussed at a future meeting.
